North Carolina law allows any individual or registered political action committee (PAC) to contribute up to $4,000 per election for any statewide office. Corporate contributions, contributions from registered NC lobbyists, and contributions from foreign nationals are prohibited. PACs are prohibited from contributing during NC Legislative Sessions. NC law also requires political committees to report the name, mailing address, job title or profession, and name of the employer for individuals contributing in excess of $50 in an election cycle. Contributions are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes.
